What is the Panel for Educational Policy?

The Panel for Educational Policy (PEP) is the governing body of New York City's Department of Education

The PEP has 24 voting members

- 5 Elected by CEC presidents to represent each borough
- 5 Appointed by each of the borough presidents
- 13 Appointed by the Mayor
- +1 Independent Chair

What does the PEP do?

- Guarantees access to a high-quality education for every NYCPS student
- Ensures families have the resources they need to support their children's success
- Approves major things like contracts, policy, school closures, and co-locations

What is my role as the Queens
CECs representative on the PEP?

What does this look like on the day-to-day?

What about D28?
